2025 FIELD JOURNAL

Prairie Sunset: An Anthology | Volume XVII

This year marks the 20th anniversary celebrating the Symphony in the Flint Hills organization. Twenty years since the genesis of the idea for an almanac, a guide, an actual book was hatched by those fearless original visionaries. Over the years, various themes highlighted remarkable and singular characteristics of our beloved Flint Hills – with an aim to educate and enlighten.

Celebrating 20 glorious years of Symphony in the Flint Hills writing, art, events and music, the 2025 Field Journal, themed “Prairie Sunset,” marks a significant moment. We’ve striven for a well-rounded anthology, showcasing one piece of writing from each of the previous years’ Field Journals, chosen by individuals with strong and significant ties to the Hills. Reviewing two decades’ worth of thoughtful contributions, the common theme of respect for the land and all her inhabitants remains a constant.
